Volunteer Board Position – Member at Large

Members at Large are Board members whose positions carries no specific or individual responsibilities beyond those shared by all Board members. By representing issues and opportunities arising in the Studio and throughout the Society to the Board, and by representing the Board's interests and decisions to Membership and non-member participants, they serve to amplify and diversify the Board's collective ability to effectively reflect and direct the Society.

General Responsibilities of All Members of the Board

- Participates in monthly Board Meetings; votes on motions and resolutions put before the Board in such meetings; reviews and approves Minutes of such meetings in a timely fashion after their completion;
- Participates and is available and responsive by e-mail in a timely fashion to Board matters and business that for whatever reason cannot be deferred to Board Meetings;
- Actively represents Board decisions to, and solicits input, from Members and non-Member participants in sessions; and participates regularly in sessions with an eye toward identifying issues arising in the Studio or among session participants that should be brought to Board attention.
